JOHN QUINCY ADAMS.

THE MASSACHUSETTS DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Meeting at Faneuil Hall--The Party Not Dead--John Q. Adams Nominated for Governor.

BOSTON, Oct. 7.—The State Convention called by the regular Democratic State Central Committee met at Faneuil Hall to-day. Delegates were admitted by tickets, which they had to procure in advance from the State Central Committee and surrender to policemen stationed at the entrance. Reuben Noble, of Wesfield, called the convention to order. He congratulated the delegates that the party had met in Faneuil Hall; that the party was not dead and proposed to make itself felt throughout the State and nation. On motion of Charles Levy, of Woodbury, Leverett Saltonstall was elected temporary chairman.

Mr. Saltonstall was introduced and took the chair greeted with cheers. He thanked the convention for the honor. He doubted if history could show a more glaring outrage than was perpetrated by the Republican party in 1877. Let the Republicans say what they please of instances of wrong-doing by the Democrats, nothing could atone for the foisting of a President into office against a clear majority of three hundred thousand by the people. Décisions of courts and acts of legislatures had been set aside, but a great wrong could never be forgotten.

He wished he could blot from his memory the scenes he witnessed in the Florida army bivouac and false affidavits collected to perpetuate this great wrong of perpetration, an I which were rewarded by him who has received the office of President. Mr. Saltonstall discussed the legislation and events leading to the Wilmot Proviso, and then passed to the State issues.

THE NOMINATION.

John Quincy Adams was nominated for Governor by acclamation.

From Memphis.

Fever and Ague on Shipboard.

HALIFAX, October 7.—The Norwegian bark "Silo" laden with turpentine and rosin from Wilmington for Liverpool has arrived. Reports left Wilmington September 12th; the next day one man was taken with fever and ague, and five others in the next few days. It took a more southerly course, hoping the men would recover in warmer weather, but another fell sick leaving only two fit for duty. The captain decided to bear for Halifax. He passed two vessels and hoisted a flag of distress, but both kept on their course and took no notice of the bark. Seven men are now in the hospital.

CUMBERLAND, Md., October 7.—The new Central Coal Company, one of the largest shippers, are to-day giving out tools to miners, who will to-morrow go to work at fifty cents per ton, the price demanded by the strikers. All other companies will soon start to work at the same figures.

An Encounter with a Desperado—Pistols and a Race.

Charlotte Observer.

About 12 o'clock Sunday night Policemen Farrington, Hill and Stevens had a desperate encounter with a negro who escaped from the jail of a neighboring county. His name it is deemed best to withhold from the public for the present. A reward of $450 is offered for his capture, and hearing that he was in a house in the first ward the policemen mentioned above went there to get him. As they approached, the negro saw them through an open window, and slamming one door in the face of Policeman Hill, he leaped out of the other, and as he passed Policeman Farrington drew his pistol and fired. Farrington fired at him twice and Stevens once, but none of the shots took effect. Then followed a race for about a half mile. When on the outskirts of the city Policeman Farrington came up near him and he turned and fired again. Finding then he was on the opposite side of a deep ditch from the policeman, he turned in another direction. Farrington did not fire when shot at the second time as he had only one more barrel of his pistol loaded and thought that he might get into still closer quarters with the desperado. But being unable to cross the ditch he did not again come up with him and the negro escaped. He is a very desperate character, and escaped from jail by shooting the jailor through the hand. He is also accused of the murder of his wife in South Carolina, but when he escaped was awaiting trial for larceny.

A Card.

Editor of News:

WILMINGTON, Oct. 6.—Youcopy an article from the Albemarle Enquirer, a paper I never see, in which I am reflected upon. Possibly you will allow space enough for a brief reply. The Enquirer says:

"Notably among these critics is Mr. Kingsbury, of the Wilmington Star. Now, he is certainly very good authority, but if the fact had not leaked out, as we knew it would, that he had expected or been requested to write some similar work, his harsh criticisms would have come with better grace. He seems to forget that the author of the work is a scholar as well as himself, and that while his criticisms may be taken, the work need not be rejected."

Captain Samuel A. Ashe promptly corrected a similar insinuation made against me in the NEWS in his paper, the Raleigh Observer, for which I was grateful. He stated that he knew all about my former purpose to write a history of the State. In November, 1875, I abandoned the purpose I had formed, and returned to Captain Ashe a large number of volumes that had been kindly lent me by himself and the late Judge Battle to aid me in my proposed task. I wrote to him giving my reasons for abandoning the project altogether.

Since then I have been a very busy man, and have not had the slightest idea of undertaking any work connected with North Carolina history. Weeks ago, before any attempt was made to blacken my character, a letter of mine to Dossey Battle, Esq., editor of the Tarboro Southerner, was published, in which I mentioned that I had no literary plans whatever, and had long ago given up the idea of uniting a history.

In 1875 I published a prospectus in Our Living and our Dead relative to a school history. It was well received by the press, for which I was duly thankful. It is not exactly fair for the Enquirer to talk at this late day of its "leaking out." It was made as public as possible.

It is proper for me to say that after I had read Green's "History of the English People" I changed my plan altogether as set forth in the prospectus.

I abandoned the purpose of writing a school history, and intended to write a history for the library in one volume, after the model of Green. I found it would be double work to first write a school history and then undertake a more elaborate work, as this would necessitate my going over the authorities twice instead of once. I mention this to set myself right before the public.

T. B. KINGSBURY.

No Doubt About It.

From the New York Sun.

Grant is as much a candidate now as he was in 1868 or in 1872. All the ring chiefs and a great number of leaders in the Republican party are for him first, last and all the time. They have not changed in the least degree, or abated a jot in devotion. Their programme of a sectional crusade has been organized with reference to Grant. All the platforms are manufactured in one mold, and they bear the impress of a preconcerted plan of campaign for 1880, by forcing an issue with the South, and claiming that a man with an iron grip is demanded in the Executive office.

A Shifty Martyr.

Goldsboro Messenger.

The negro exoduster, Samuel L. Perry, who infests the LaGrange neighborhood, is just now at Washington belying and sla.dering our people. Perry spells sugar with a "k," and yet he set himself up for a school teacher, and by the way, as he now complains that "the wages of public school teachers have been cut down," it may be this fact tempted him to forge a school voucher for his pay from $30 to $50. We are told that the proof of this has just been discovered at the court house, and also learn that the irrepressible Sam is wanted in Lenoir county where his brother is in trouble about a voucher said to have been forged by Sam.

Justice's Court

His Honor Mayor Manly presiding:

Henry Medlin, drunk and disorderly, fined $2.50—paid and was discharged.

Charles Walton, colored, was up on the charge of having acted in a disorderly manner, by creating too much noise about his home. The evidence disclosed the fact that he was only whipping his children, and His Honor, being of the opinion that this was the most orderly occupation (for his children, at least), in the long run, in which he could be engaged, dismissed the complaint upon the condition that he would return to this legitimate occupation and lay on an additional two hundred stripes.

Justice's Court.

Justice Barbee yesterday disposed of several minor offenses, and postponed a case of trespass until this morning at 10 o'clock, when it will be tried —State vs. Aaron Young and James Bell.

Caton Bryan, charged with bastardy, was committed to jail in default of bail, after having a hearing before this Justice:

A case of abandonment was also deferred until to-day.

Organ Recital.

An organ recitation by Professor F. A. Bohlman and a rendition of the splendid oratorio of "Daniel," extending through the seventy years' captivity, will be given at the Salisbury street Baptist church by the choir assisted by several prominent singers of the city, on Wednesday evening, the 15th inst., beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Tickets fifty cents. For sale at at A. Williams' book store, at drug stores of William Simpson, F. H. Heartt, Pescud, Lee & Co., and at the hardware store of Thos. H. Briggs & Sons.

The "Daily Torchlight."

During the session of the State Baptist Convention, which meets in Oxford on the 5th of November next, the Torchlight will be issued daily. It is stated that a distinguished Baptist clergyman will assist in and superintend the editorial management. One of the objects of the enterprise is furnishing a full and accurate report of the Convention.

A Literary Feast.

A very intelligent man said that an exceedingly pleasant literary feast may be obtained by reading "Cæsar," by James Anthony Froude. Alfred Williams & Co., will send a copy by mail, post paid, on receipt of price, $2.50.

All of Which is True.

New York Tribune.

No, Mr. Phillips, the Democratic party isn't dead.

OURAY'S RED RAIDERS.

LIEUTENANT PAYNE'S COMMAND BELIEVED TO BE IN EXISTENCE.

Lieutenant Price Writes a Letter to His Wife—The Indians Driving the Miners.

RAWLINGS, Wy., Oct. 7.—A letter received to-day from Lieutenant Price at Fortification Creek dated 3d inst. says: "Have seen no Indians in this vicinity. With my twenty-nine men I can stand off three hundred Indians. A company of the Ninth cavalry, fifty strong reached Payne yesterday, the 2d inst."

From the above, which is entirely reliable; there is probably no doubt but what Payne's command still exists. The news creates a great deal of rejoicing. The letter was written by Lieutenant Price to his wife.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—A Denver special says the Indian scare prevails throughout Colorado, though no casualties are reported since Thornburg's fight. Governor Pitkin appeals to General Pope for ammunition.

Leadville dispatches report the Indians driving the mines in within thirty miles of there. The Governer has ordered picketed riflemen sent to defend the settlers. There are no government troops at Denver. General Pope telegraphs: "Will cover the country with troops within twenty-four hours." The movements of the Indians are unknown, but it is generally believed that the worst is over.

FORSYTHE.

WINSTON, October 4.—The weather is intensely hot and as dry as it was in the summer during the continued drought. Even the grass in the yards is dead or nearly so. The dust is six inches deep, and beyond endurance. Business under the circumstances is good.

M. H. Longfield, a Jew merchant, is selling out by auction.

Several new families have recently moved into our city, and several others are corresponding with a view to securing some of the new buildings now in course of erection.

Our town can find room for as many energetic, wide-awake men of any vocation and capitalists of any amount of money for investment as choose to come, and can promise them remunerative employment for labor and capital. But men without industry, energy and vim, had better stay away, for they will go under most certainly in the competitive rush of our people.

We hear of little sickness, and should judge both towns in fine health.

Thorne's Comedy Company, arrived from Salisbury in wagons late yesterday evening, and performed in Tise's Hall. The popularity won by this troupe when here before, insures for them a crowded house.

The Sabbath School re-union of all the schools in the county, will come off next week, 8th inst., in Salem. The processiod will form at the Court House square here, and march to the square in Salem, where they will be met and admitted at three gates by ushers and seated in regular order. Then addresses interspersed by music lead by the band, will be delivered, followed by a large feast of cake and coffee after the popular and pleasant Moravian style. We expect a grand time second only to the Fourth of July.

WINSTON, October 7.—The weather is still dry and warm, and some of the best wells in town are dry.

The health of the county is good at present, and the industrial and moral tone fine.

The exceeding dry weather has had its advantages and its disadvantages. The weather for saving and curing fodder and tobacco has been splendid, yet for late crops it has been very bad, and, worst of all, it has prevented or greatly retarded the sowing of wheat, and if a general "wet spell" should follow it would be quite a serious draw back to the future wheat crops.

We hear of quite a number of tobacco barns getting burned this season, and attribute it to two causes; first, the exceedingly dry condition of everything, and second, the forcing process so extensively practiced by farmers now. By pressing the work they cure a barn in three days when it ought to require at least five. It injures tobacco to cure so rapidly, and consequently depreciates its value and price and results in a loss to the owner.

We notice that cane is grown now by some farmers, and properly managed it is said to pay well

The 9th inst. our county votes on the no fence question. Some townships it is thought will go pro and others con. An idea as to the majority of the county cannot be formed. We are inclined to believe that it will be best for the county and State to dispense with fences, as it would be such a saving of timber, which will be an item in this country some day if this wholesale process of destruction does not terminate.

Much interest is manifested in the coming reunion of the Sabbath schools to come off next Wednesday.

FRANKLIN.

FRANKLINTON, Oct. 6.—The Franklin water drinker, Coley Hight, last Saturday night drank a half pint glass fifteen times filled with water. So much for Hight and water.

Died yesterday, Mrs. Robert Jones, of Brassfields township, and this morning Mr. Robert Jones himself. Both died of bilious fever.

LENOIR.

KINSTON, Oct. 6.—The weather for the last week has been warm.

Cotton only eight cents and a fraction. Trade is very good considering.

Little Billie Cox, son of James G. and Jennie O. Cox, died last Tuesday morning.

We have had several little "second class" fights here lately. Nobody hurt yet.

Mr. James G. Cox joined the Missionary Baptist church Thursday and Mrs. Sarah Wilkins presented herself and was received and will be baptised Sunday.

Mr. Albert L. Rountree and family, of New York, are in town. H. W.

PITT.

GREENVILLE, Oct. 4.—The weather is excessively warm for this time of the year.

Trade very good. Cotton coming in rapidly. Scuppernong grapes sell at thirty-five cents a bushel. Turkeys one dollar per pair.

The United States has workmen engaged in taking up logs and brush out of Tar river. The river bridge just finished is an honor to the town.

Politics quiet. Nobody cares anything for anybody's "boom" except his own. As the supply of candidates for Governor in the west and center seems to have failed, call on us; we can supply the demand at reduced prices too. Though some of them are of inferior quality, the majority of them are good middling, though the staple is somewhat knotty.

HALIFAX.

HALIFAX, Oct. 6.—We are having excessively warm weather for the season.

Trade is very brisk, considering the general complaint of hard times. There is much more cotton bought here than in previous years, owing to there being fewer foreign mortgages. People have learned to curtail their expenses. The Northern merchants having refused to supply most of the smaller farmers and laborers, they were forced to live or die among themselves, and while the crop may be a short one, still they are not so much in debt as formerly.

Mr. W. H. Arrington has had an addition to his family, a little visitor, come to make his home happier.

The Methodist protracted meeting at this place has been postponed until after the Fair in Weldon.

I have noticed for some time past, that car loads of lumber marked for Baltimore continued to pass through. I learned on inquiry that it is shipped from this county by Mr. J. R. Tillery. Mr. Tillery says he ships from six to ten car loads a week, averaging $50.00 a load. This money is a clear profit to people of the county; there is no attendant expense outside of the county; the money is a clear gain brought into the county, at the rate of $300.00 a week. It would be better if more of our people could be profitable producers, instead of having to send their crops on at the end of each year to pay for goods sold to them on mortgage prices, commissions on the sale of such goods, etc. Now, while all can't sell timber, may we not find some other occupation that we too may be producers and not mere cotton laborers for northern merchants?

Roanoke River is very low, and can be forded below the ferry near here, something very unusual.

Our county is so long and large that the people of the extreme end are getting very anxious for a division. The extremes are about twenty-five miles from the court house. And as we have six courts a year, the distance traveled by those living at these extremes makes it both expensive and inconvenient.

H.

ORANGE.

DURHAM, Oct. 6.—The continuous hot and dry weather has about dried up all the streams and vegetation, and of course our town is not as lively as usual, and news therefore scarce.

The appearance of the clouds this morning indicates rain, and we hope soon to see all nature refreshed and people's heart made glad by the appearance of copious showers.

The majority of our merchants have returned from the North, and all are receiving large and elegant stocks of merchandise, which indicates we suppose, they are looking for a heavy fall and winter trade.

Some of our young men who are ever ready to contribute to the happiness and enjoyment of their friends, gave a hop at the Central hotel last Friday night, which will long be remembered by all who were present as a happy and pleasant occasion in the history of their lives. Many thanks are due them and Mr. Hassel, the clever proprietor of the Central.

An old man by the name of Redman, who lives a short distance from town, became intoxicated last Friday evening. Just before 5 o'clock he left for home down the Railroad. When next heard from a few minutes afterward, he was taken off the engine a mangled corpse. It seems he was standing on the track facing the engine when first seen by the conductor, when he blew the signal and threw on the brakes, but the old man simply crossed his arms, and with a smile of seeming defiance met his sad death.

The Durham Light Infantry and the band are getting ready to go to the Fair one day. The company is yet in its infancy and cannot be expected to drill equal to the New York Seventh, but they will take the "rag off the bush" for good looks and nice deportment.

Mr. J. S. Carr and lady are still absent in New York. Captain Wahab, Captain J. S. Lockhart and William W. H. Osborne, who have all been sick, have about recovered. Mrs. J. R. Day, R. H. Wright, W. & J. B. Duke and J. G. Ward are all on the wing in the interest of their respective brands of tobacco. Our town is favored with the presence of several ladies. We notice Miss Annie Parks visiting the Grand Central; Miss Bettie Exum is with her sister, Mrs. W. T. Blackwell; Miss Chambers is visiting the family of Mr. Fanning; Miss Mercer, of Virginia, is stopping with her sister, Mrs. W. L. Wall.

MOORE.

SANDFORD, Oct. 4.—Buffalo church is beautifully located about one and a half miles from Sanford, and reflects great credit upon the entire community, and also speaks in tones of great praise to Colonel John B. Massamore, the architect and builder. I have had the pleasure of seeing this beautiful building and think I can safely say it is one of the best I ever saw and equals almost any of the city churches in our State.

County Commissioners.

This body met yesterday, Messrs. Poole, Allen, Brown, Jinks and Jones present.

Permission was granted L. D. H. Whitehead, upon payment of tax, to retail liquors at the Fair grounds during the week of the State Fair, under the regulations of the Agricultural Society.

Mr. Commissioner Brown, from the committee to examine the books and vouchers of J. B. Neathery, county treasurer and treasurer of the public school fund, submitted reports in both cases—the former showing a balance due the treasurer of $388.95, and the latter, that there is due the school fund $9,719.66. The reports were received and ordered to be recorded.

A petition, signed by certain members of the Bar, praying that the Board ask the Governor to appoint a special term of the Superior court, in December, for the trial of civil causes, was not granted.

Ordered, That the Chairman of the Board be directed to collect the amounts due for coupons on a State bond, belonging to the school fund, and pay the same to the Treasurer of the County Board of Education; and that he be authorized to cancel certain other papers originally turned over by N. G. Rand, former chairman of common schools, among them a Confederate certificate of deposit; all be worthles.

Relief from payment of taxes erroneously assessed against W. N. Andrews, agent, was granted.

The revision of the jury list was postponed till the November meeting.

John Morgan was appointed to fill the tank at the jail, etc., provided he perform the duty for $3 per month.

Aid was extended to the outside poor; a bid for building a bridge accepted; some schcol business transacted, allowances were made and accounts ordered to be paid.

Adjourned till the first Monday in November.

O. C. L. 419, K. of H.

Regular meeting Oak City Lodge, 419, Knights of Honor, to-night at 7:30 o'clock. Every member is requested to be present. Work in the several degrees.

The great superiority of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup to all other cough remedies is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy. Price 25 cents a bottle.

BALLOONING DANGERS.

THE MISSING AERONAUTS, WISE AND BURR.

A Clue Which Shows that they were not lost in the Illinois Forests —A Bursted Aerostat.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—The Times' special from Carlinville, Ill., says: "A circular advertisement, issued by W. A. Kendall, Assistant Land Commissioner, St. Louis, on the margin of which is printed, 'Dropped from Professor Wise's transcontinental balloon, the Pathfinder,' was found last Monday in the garden of D. A. Flint, two blocks east of the center of this city. Inquiry has been made whether other circulars had been found in the city, but none was heard of. The conclusion is that it was dropped from the balloon last Sunday night, and that the aeronauts were not lost south of this city. The wooded or swampy region named in the newspapers is south of Carlinville. There are no swamps of any magnitude within twenty-five miles of here, and no forests so dense but that the aeronauts, if not disabled, could readily find their way out. This afternoon the same kind of a circular was found by Charles E. Glass, about half a mile south of Flint's in an inclosed lot. The paper had the appearance of having been exposed to the elements for several days."

The conviction now is that Professor Wise and George Burr, who started from St. Louis in a balloon on Sunday last, have perished either in Lake Michigan or in the vast forests of Michigan. Telegrams have been sent in every direction, requesting information, but at no point have the missing aeronauts been seen. Professor Wise and his companion took no food in the balloon, and if they landed in the northeastern wilderness without personal disaster starvation is probable.

ANOTHER BALLOONING ACCIDENT.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 5.—At about 3:30 P. M. to-day Professor Colgrove, aeronaut, and C. H. Williams, manager of Woodward Gardens, attempted to make a balloon ascension from the Gardens. The wind was blowing almost a gale at the time. The balloon seemed to be insufficiently inflated, and arose heavily above the buildings of the Garden. It soon afterward dropped and scudded along at a low elevation, tearing away telegraph wires in its flight. The cloth soon ripped and the gas escaped with a roar, which was heard for blocks. Both of the occupants were thrown out, falling in Folsom street, between Fonrteenth and Fifteenth streets, and the balloon came down a few rods beyond. A great crowd from the Gardens was soon collected, and medical assistance was summoned. Williams was fearfully crushed about the face and head, and died in a few moments. Colgrove's face is somewhat bruised, but his injuries seem to be mostly internal; and although alive at last accounts, he was insensible, and not likely to recover. The disaster has caused much excitement. Many who frequent the Gardens assert that the balloon was badly patched, and was unsafe at best, and they express surprise at Williams risking an ascension, especially when the weather was so boisterous.

Professor Colgrove has since died of his injuries. Professor Martin, the aeronaut, and others who were present at the ascension, begged Mr. Williams not to go up, saying that in the half gale which was blowing he was literally taking his life in his hands. The men fell about two hundred feet, the balloon rebounding after striking the telegraph wires, then striking a chimney and again rebounding, at which moment the aeronauts were thrown out.

The Circular Running Roller Skate.

The roller skates now used at the Skating Rink of the Raleigh Roller Skating Association, are decidedly the best yet invented, and are the only skates that are now used in the rinks of the United States, England and France. These skates, from their peculiar construction, support the ankle in an upright position, and prevent it from turning over beyond a given point, hence ladies, children and others, who have not the physical stamina to balance upon the single runner, can learn and practice skating upon them with ease and safety.

The Raleigh Skating Association hold the full and exclusive right to use the said skates in the city of Raleigh, and county of Wake, and these skates are used at but one place, namely, the skating rink at Dodd's Hall. The circular running roller skates are entirely different in their construction and operation from the straight running rubber skates. Seen in shop windows, or in use by children in parlors and upon the streets, a comparison between a toy watch and a genuine time keeper, would perhaps be more just.

These skates have never been displayed for sale. The only way to procure them is by the purchase of the right to use them in a certain territory. They can never be sold the public to advantage from the fact that each pair of circular running roller skates have over twenty working parts, and must often be taken apart to clean, lubricate and adjust and hence require more mechanical skill than one skater in fifty possesses, but at the skating rink the skates are always in perfect running order and skaters enjoy the privilege of using them at very low prices.

The rink will be open on Friday evening the 10th inst. at 7:30 o'clock.

A. Creech.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of this veteran dry goods dealer, which appears in this issue. Mr. Creech has figured as one of the leading merchants of this city for a great number of years, and none stand higher for reliable, prompt and fair dealing than this gentleman. His name is thoroughly identified with Raleigh trade. He enjoys a splendid run of custom; has a magnificent display of goods in his line this season, and is a popular gentleman and a thoroughly reliable business man. Creech's marble hall is always full of customers who are politely and quickly waited on by his obliging clerks, and his jobbing department, which is complete, supplies a large country trade. It is a pleasure to note his continued prosperity.

The Adah Richmond Opera Company

This company has secured Metropolitan Hall for Fair week and will perform therein every night next week. They play Fatinitza and other popular operas. They enjoy quite a reputation as actors and actresses, and are under an engagement with Mr. Powell, the Richmond theatrical manager. Here is what a Norfolk paper says of them:

"A very gratifying and appreciative audience was present at the Opera-House last evening to witness Adah Richmond's Comic Opera Troupe in Fatinitza. The entertainment was most charming one and beyond expectation. In the dual character of Fatinitza and Vladimir Miss Richmond acquitted herself with full credit. Her voice is pleasing, strong, and flexible, and exhibits cultivation of a high standard. In the role of Princess Lydia, Miss Belle Girard established herself a favorite with the audience, and won from them hearty applause. Mr. Armand as Julian, the war correspondent, was good, and his rich tenor voice was admired. The trio, "March Forward, Fearless," by Misses Richmond, Girard, and Mr. Armand was splendidly rendered, and brought down the house, receiving a double encore. Mr. Kent as General Kantchukoff, Mr. Vincent as Sergeant Sterpaun, and Mr. Sturgis as Mustapha, were all good. Take it in all the company is an excellent one, and sustains the reputation given it by the press."

See advertisement in another column.

Lessons in Cooking.

The design of "The Raleigh Cooking School" is to popularize those methods of cheap and good cookery which have been found to yield such appetising and nutritious dishes. The best modes of preparation, which have been tested in both the South Kensington and New York cooking schools, are adopted, and ladies will be at liberty before the course ends to choose favorite or local dishes, the preparation of which will always be a specialty.

The full course of instruction embraces marketing, cooking, serving and carving, and familliarizes pupils with the chemistry of food and the physiology of nutrition. Economy is inculcated as a virtue. Both housekeepers and cooks are taught that they must learn by practice and comparison proper methods of bringing the best and cheapest dishes to a well-appointed table.

The success of these lessons in New York and Boston has been unquestionable, and the instruction of "The Raleigh Cooking School" will be thorough and satisfactory in every particular.

This school is attached to Peace Institute, and is under the superintendence of Mrs. Helen S. Campbell, who will give all necessary information on application.

Ladies' classes are held on Mondays and Wednesdays from 10 to 12 A. M., and the terms are as follows: Single admission tickets, $1; Course tickets for 12 lessons, $10; Private lessons, per hour, $1. (Ladies choose bills of fare, pay for materials used and own dishes when finished). Private classes of 10 or more pupils, each, $10. (Ladies choose bills of fare, pay for materials and own dishes).

Magistrate's Dockets.

The acts of 1878-79 require Justices of the Peace to keep a book of fines and forfeitures, as collected by them, to be open to the inspection of the public at all times.

It is the duty of the County Commissioners of the different counties to supply their resident justices with this book, but they have not heretofore paid much attention to the matter, probably thinking the Justices generally do not do much business. This is a mistake. These fines all go to the support of our public schools and foot up a larger amount than one would suppose. The chairman of the Wake county board yesterday happened to see a receipt from the County Treasurer to one single magistrate (Justice Barbee) for $139.50, enough to pay a teacher in any of our schools for the length of time for which it was collected, and ordered that a book be presented to Justice B. This is an important matter, especially when the education of the children is concerned, and these books should be supplied at once.

Carolina Fair Association.

The annual exhibition of this Association will be held November 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th at Charlotte, and the NEWS acknowledges the receipt of a complimentary ticket of admission thereto. Following is the letter of transmittal:

"I have the honor to forward you the inclosed complimentary ticket of admission to the annual exhibition of the Carolina Fair Association, to be held in Charlotte November 4th to 7th, 1879, and allow me to express the hope that you will be with us on that occasion.

"From present indications, the management predict a larger, better, and more successful fair than has ever been held here.

"I am, very respectfully,

"CHARLES R. JONES, Secretary."

A Complaint.

The North Carolina Farmer publishes an article in reference to the manufacturing of shoes at the penitentiary. It says: "We heard a most worthy shoe maker of the city of Raleigh, who has a family to support, say that the manufacturing of shoes at the State Penitentiary, was ruining his business and he would have to move away. We submit the question, is it right for the State to interfere with the rights of private industry in this way? Is not the State a compact of citizens for the protection of life, liberty and property? and is not his right to his industry and labor violated by the State, the appointed agency for protection? This question of interfering with private industry by the State and State officials is one which must be met sooner or later. For one we utter our decided protest against it."

Another Swindle.

Circulars have been extensively distributed throughout the State advertising a device called the "Flat Scover," warranted to make "fast horses faster," at the rate of ten seconds a week, and promising all sorts of benefits to the equine race. The circulars are signed "S. H. Frink & Co., drawer 509, Chicago," and state that the apparatus will be sent on receipt of $1. A Chicago man, who was written to by a friend in Hartford, could not find the office of the firm, but on inclosing a dollar to the box named received an ordinary rubber band.

THE FAIR NEXT WEEK.

TRAIN ARRANGEMENTS PERFECTED AND AMPLE FACILITIES.

Another List of Donations—Special Trains to be Run During Fair Week—Notes.

The following are donations to the North Carolina Agricultural Society for the 19th annual State Fair, at Raleigh, October 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th and 18th next. (Acknowledged by C. B. Denson, Secretary, in behalf of the Executive Committee.)

One Big Giant feed mill, given by J. A. Field, Son & Company, manufacturers of agricultural implements, 922 N. Second street, St. Louis, Mo. This valuable piece of mechanism was exhibited at our Fair last year, and received the medal. We ask the attention of farmers and all who have the maintenance of stock in charge to this useful and almost indispensable article.

One case two dozen crab meat; one case two dozen crab soup, given by T. A. Williams & Company, Norfolk, Va., wholesale grocers and commission merchants, 2 and 4 Roanoke Square. These crabs are prepared in the ancient town of Hampton, near Old Point Comfort, and form a novel and delightful article of diet. Only a few minutes elapse between their swimming in Hampton Roads and being hermetically sealed in a can. It is said that it requires over two hundred and fifty crabs to furnish meat for a case.

Six sample kegs fertilizers, containing fine ground bone, dried blood, dried fish, B. D. seafowl guano, Bradley's patent, and Bradley's dissolved bone, given by the Bradley Fertilizing Company, 27 Kilby street, Boston. They also send glass for the exhibition of their several constituents of fertilizers to the farmer or other purchaser. Their object in sending these goods to be seen at our Fair other than the B. D. Seafowl Guano and Bradley's Patent Phosphate is to show the purity of the articles and their mechanical condition.

FAIR ARRANGEMENTS.

Arrangements are perfected for ample trains at the Fair. There will be published to-morrow a full schedule of the trains on the North Carolina railroad from Greensboro and from Danville, and Charlotte.

Special arrangements have been made through the promptness of Mr. Badger and courtesy of Colonel Talcott, to run trains each morning of Fair week from Salem to Greensboro in time to connect with the morning train for the fair grounds.

On Wednesday and Thursday morning special trains will be run from Fayetteville to connect at Sanford with the R. & A. Air Line direct for Raleigh.

On all the roads all articles for the Fair are required to have freight prepaid. After the Fair the receipt for the same with the certificate of the secretary of the society, that said goods have been exhited, should be presented at the office where they were shipped on their return, and then all charges will be refunded. This is liberal. It is necessary to adopt that system to protect the roads from sending ordinary freight free.

FAIR NOTES.

Entering for the Fair came in more rapidly than ever yesterday. James Norwood Esq., of Hillsboro entered eight horses, and a large line of cattle, sheep, swine, etc., requiring twenty-five stalls at the grounds for their accommodation. Mr. Norwood is known everywhere in North Carolina, as one of the most experienced breeders of fine stock in our midst.

Talbott & Co., send two handsome engines from Richmond Va., to the Fair. The great demand throughout the country for engines tells the tale of returning prosperity.

Messrs. Stronach & Alcott will exhibit a splendid collection of machinery and implements of every description.

The Little Giant Cotton Press, operated by hydraulic power will be exhibited at our Fair, by J. W. Cardwell & Co., of Richmond. We were pleased to meet their representative yesterday. They will also show a separator, horse power, etc.

Glass Ball Shooting.

The following is the programme of the glass ball shooting at the Fair:

The first and second matches for the breech-loading guns will be shot on Wednesday of Fair week. The third and fourth for the rifle and hunting suit on Thursday. In the first match twenty balls will be shot at. In the second eighteen. In the third, sixteen. In the fourth, fourteen.

The shooting will begin at 11 o'clock Wednesday with the first match, to be followed immediately with the second, for the $50 gun. On Thursday the third match for the Winchester carbine will be shot, followed by the fourth for the hunting suit, or loading instruments. To begin at 11:30.

The NEWS is informed that some good shots will be present to contest for the prizes.

Walter McDonald in Memphis.

The following is from the Memphis Appeal:

"I request the privilege of expressing the gratitude I feel toward Dr. Sam. Summerell and Mrs. Powell, nurses, and the brethren of the Masonic fraternity, for their kind and faithful attention to myself and my brother-in-law, Charles Miller, during our severe illness. While life lasts I shall gratefully remember these true friends. May heaven's choicest blessings be theirs.

WALTER MCDONALD."

This young man is the son of our townsman Colonel J. A. McDonald, and brother of Charles A., our accommodating and polite stamp clerk at the post office. He went to Memphis in 1870, and has been through two summers with this yellow death all around him. He had managed some how to escape until this summer, when he was attacked with the disease and is just getting well. He will recover, it is a pleasure to announce.

Common School Teachers.

Captain Dugger, county examiner has reported to the secretary of the county board of education the number of teachers examined and approved for Wake county for the year ending September 1, 1879, as follows: Total white, 78; males, 50, females, 20. First grade thirty-five; second grade, thirty-three; third grade, ten. Total colored, seventy-three; males, forty-six; females, twenty-seven; first grade, seventeen second grade, twenty-nine; third grade, twenty-seven.

DAILY NEWS

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1879.

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

THE colored voters of St. Louis have resolved that they will no longer support the Republican ticket unless they have a fair distribution of the offices. The Republicans of St. Louis have few offices to distribute, but the colored voter would like to see where he comes in. Thus far he has not found out, Perhaps his latest resolution may open the way to a discovery.

IT is now announced that the New York associated banks have paid in full the amounts due the Government for four per cents. It is said that the Secretary's concessions to these banks made his recent speech-making tour in Ohio somewhat uncomfortable, and brought it to a close earlier than was calculated. He may now face a frowning world and take the stump for Foster, who is said to need help just now.

A CUSTOMS OFFICER in San Francisco preserves the following wine card with General Grant's autograph:

Steamship City of Tokio.

WINE CARD.

Person—Grant.
Stateroom—One.
Kind of Wine—Congress Water.

Now, where are the wine cards that preceded the above order? A Congress water card is generally the sequel of some other order.

THERE has been an enormous increase of stocks and bonds in this country, as compared with September last year—this increase the New York Journal of Commerce finds to be not less than $445,000,000, and claims that it it is due to the wonderful revival which has taken place in trade in that period. Many stocks which a year ago were regarded as practically valueless, are now quoted at high prices at the Stock Exchange.

THE New York Republicans, notwithstanding the Kelly bolt and the consequent division of the Democratic party, are by no means satisfied that they can beat Governor Robinson. Their leaders caution the rank and file that it will not do to expect too much from Democratic dissension; that they have an earnest and doubtful campaign before them, and that they can only succeed by the most active efforts. On the other hand, the regular Democrats, who were somewhat disheartened at first, are now beginning a vigorous and aggressive canvass, with the best results. Altogether the outlook in New York improves every day.

EVER since Mr. Cyrus W. Field proposed erecting a monument on the spot where Major Andre was hanged, a majority of the Northern journals have been lashing him unmercifully about the "outrage" and his "unpatriotic spirit." As usual they have to intermeddle with somebody's private affairs. Mr. Field owns the ground, and if he chooses to put up a monument to Tom, Dick and Harry, he certainly has a right so to do. "Why don't he erect a monument to the memory of Captain Nathan Hale?" is the next question. If these gabblers are so much in earnest about commemorating Captain Hale's services why don't they propound this: Is there no other rich patriot who can afford to expend $5,000 in the matter? If there was more action and less talk in the matter the thing could be accomplished and the dead hero would receive a small portion of the meed due his self-sacrifice.

IN speaking of the Thornburg massacre the Washington Post thus refers to General Sherman's statement of the strength of the army and his abuse of Congress because of the late uprising:

The General thinks we need a larger army. That is natural. Men of his profession are accustomed to think as he does. But there is not the least reason to imagine that the slaughter of Captain Thornburg and others would have been avoided if we had had a million men on our almost immeasurable frontier. So long as we have savage Indians and bad white men in close proximity to each other, and with conflicting interests, we shall have these disturbances. General Sherman knows that we cannot have an army corps always at the scene of a possible outbreak. If we had 2,000,000 men under arms, that would be impossible. As we have said before, we are now paying a monstrous sum for military service—twice as much as we ought to pay, more than twice as much as the same number of soldiers costs any other people. We don't complain of the paltry amount paid to the enlisted men. That is but a trifle. We have twice as many officers as there is any earthly need of, and there are many items of needless and extravagant expenditure. The people will not consent to have quite all their earnings squandered on fuss and feathers, and in the maintenance of "society" men to supply the fashionable demand for husbands.

NON-COMBATANTS.

General Sherman having stated that there were only 25,000 men in the army under the present standard, and that of this number 5,000 were clerks, independent of cooks, hospital attendants, etc. (under which head, "etc.," we suppose are classed the "dog-robbers," i. e., officers' servants), who are non-combatants, we suggest that the War Department engage the services of citizen clerks at a fair compensation. If it takes 5,000 soldier clerks to transact the business accruing on the employment of 25,000 men, we must needs say that our suggestion would prove economical to the Government. These clerks are privates placed on "daily duty," and the aggregate of their pay roll amounts to $65,000 per month or $780000 per annum. Five hundred clerks would be an ample allowance for the army under its present standard, and this number of capable citizen clerks could easily be obtained at a salary of $50 each per month, or an aggregate of $250,000 per annum—a saving of $530,000.

As for cooks, the detail used to be four men out of a company ranging from sixty to a hundred men. Of course the companies do not average more than fifty men each; two men, therefore are amply sufficient for each company, as a fatigue party is detailed daily to carry wood and water; and these men, like the clerks, should be considered as combatants. Cooks and teamsters can be hired at less expense than it costs to enlist, equip and pay a soldier; and there are any quantity of colored men to be found that would be equally serviceable. This is a matter that should come before Congress at the next session.

There is no way, without the regimental monthly returns, to arrive at the number of hospital attendants, or what are actually needed in this detail of the service. The sick should have ample and good attendance, and we will therefore pass it by.

We now arrive at what might be properly classed as a swindle. We refer to "officers' servants." The pay of officers is fixed by law according to the branch wherein they serve. The Army Regulations allow quarters and rations for a servant. When an officer is on "detached service" he draws commutation of quarters and fuel for the servant and charges on his pay account one ration for this servant. But he never hires a servant! If he is in command of a detachment, or is with his company, he details an enlisted man as waiter (or "dog-robber," to use the soldier phrase), and thus saves the expense. To be sure a line officer's pay will not admit of any such extravagance, but where several officers are quartered together it seems as if they might combine and employ a waiter at a slight cost to each. These servants are supposed to be combatants, but they are generally in the rear with the pots and kettles belonging to their officers' camp outfit. The number of these servants cannot amount to less than eight hundred men, and a thousand would probably be nearer. Let us tabulate the statement:

Clerks,	5,000
Servants,	800
Hospital Attendants, say	200
Detached Service, teamsters, recruiting, etc.,	500
Sick,	500
Total.,	7,000

to be deducted from a force of 25,000, which leaves the effective strength of the army at 18,000, which we believe is rather more than the monthly returns for August 31st would show.

By the employment of civilian clerks, cooks and hospital attendants, the Government would save nearly a million dollars yearly, and at the same time be better served.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Speaker Randall, who owes Tammany Hall a grudge, is to speak in New York for Robinson.

You never know the country is on the verge of ruin until it becomes necessary to choose new officers.—N. O. Picayune.

A mild boom for Judge Settle of North Carolina as the Republican tailpiece in 1880, "Grant and Settle," has been started by the chairman of the Republican State Committee in North Carolina, Thomas B. Keogh.—Springfield Reyublican.

The Southern people are determined this time, if never again, to let their Northern allies make the selection for a Presidential candidate, and whomever it may be, to give him a rousing and solid support.—Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle.

The truth is that Mr. Kelly is an avowed ally of the Republicans and that the declared purpose of his canvass is to elect Cornell by withdrawing Democratic votes from Robinson. The friends of Cornell fight the local battle of Kelly because Tammany is an outlying wing of the Republican army in this campaign.—New York Herald.

A vague impression is appearing in the Republican press of Ohio that the Democrats may be stealing a march in the closing days of the canvass. The Cincinnati Enquirer, however, with barely a week's canvass left, amuses itself with poking mild fun at the Democratic managers and seems in no great anxiety to see Ewing the next Governor of Ohio.

The dispute which convulsed New Hampshire four or five years ago as to whether Natt Head is spelled Nathaniel Head, or not, is altogether distanced by a controversy in California this year whether a man baptized in Canada as "Robert Daillebout d'Estimauville de Beau Mouchel" can be elected to the California State Senate by ballots designating him as Robert Desty, by which abreviated title this man of many names had come to be known in a mining camp.

Starkey and Palen are physicians in regular standing, of high personal character, and above the suspicion of quackery or pretense. A new curative agent has come into their possession, and their administration of it, so far, has resulted in restoring to health many who had regarded their ailments as incurable and in giving back a good measure of health to a large number of invalids who had vainly sought for help through other means of cure. LIVER PILLS

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected, with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

ACUE AND FEVER

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILL.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

GOSSIP FOR THE LADIES.

Not Yet.

Not yet, O friend! not yet;
For balmy noon
Glows not upon the flower-tipped sloping lea
Whereon the cuckoo chants its plaintive tune,
Among the leaflets of the silent tree;
On fairy footsteps soon 'twill wander here,
Ah, then's the time to ask me out to beer—
Not yet, O friend! not yet!

Not yet, O love! not yet!
Your fragrant mouth,
Sweet as a virgin lily dipped in wine,
And warmer than a warm wind from the South—
Remove it not, chaste damozel, from mine,
Soft on the lakelet glows the Summer moon;
I hear no tinkle of paternal shoon—
Not yet, O love! not yet!

Mr. Krupp calls his gun "Love," because "Love levels all ranks."—Norristown Herald.

The London Spectator thinks that women care more for nature and men more for art. A cynical bachelor might say that perhaps that is the reason why men and women care so much for each other.—Courier-Journal.

An acquaintance of mine was quite nonplussed by a repartee from a friend to whom she had just remarked that she was going to the country to visit a country cousin. "How long will you stay?" asked her friend. "Oh, as long as agreeable," returned the lady. "To which party?" asked her friend, thereby quite abashing her and giving her food for a new train of thought. Mary W. Early in Detroit Free Press.

In society women hate one another. All the more because in society they have to smile in each other's faces every night of their lives. Only think what that is, my dear!—to grudge each other's conquests, to envy each other's diamonds, to study each other's dress, to watch each other's wrinkles, to outshine each other on every possible occasion, big or little, and yet always obliged to give pet names to each other, and visit each other with elaborate ceremonial. Why, women must hate each other!—Ouida.

There were just nine adults and a little girl on the Salem boat yesterday, when a man rose up and said:

"I was intending to go off on my summer vacation to-day, but the tailor disappointed me on my clothes. All you gentlemen who were served the same trick will please stand up."

Every one of the other four men stood up and gritted their teeth and sat down again.

"Now then," continued the man, "all you ladies who intended to go to-day and have been basely deceived by your dressmakers will please raise your right hands."

Every lady waved her right hands on high and clasped her fingers as if she was pulling her dressmaker's hair. No one was left out but the little girl, and as the speaker declared the question unanimously adopted she arose and made a courtesy and said:

"Please, sir, I was to go to my aunt's in Eugene, this morning, but father couldn't borrow the money to pay my fare!"—Clackamas Democrat.

Bogus Certificates.

It is no vile drugged stuff, pretending to be made of wonderful foreign roots, barks, &c., and puffed up by long bogus certificates of pretended miraculous cures, but a simple, pure, effective medicine, made of well known valuable remedies, that furnishes its own certificates by its cures. We refer to Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines.—Exchange. See another column.

Cuticura

THE GREAT SKIN CURE,

The most Healing, Soothing and Refreshing External Application in the World.

It rapidly heals Ulcers, Old Sores, and Discharging Wounds; Itching Piles and other Itching affections that have been the torture of a lifetime, thus affording unspeakable gratification to thousands; Burns, Scalds, Wounds and Fester; all Itching and Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, and all Affections of the scalp, including Loss of Hair. Nothing like it has ever been known to the most intelligent physicians. It has swept a host of poisonous remedies out of existence. It is revolutionary in its composition and mode of treatment and succeeds in curing every external affection. At every stage it is ably assisted by CUTICURA SOAP, which is a part of itself medicinally and at the same time the most delightfully fragrant and refreshing Toilet, Bath, and Nursery Soap in existence.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, a powerful purifying agent and liver stimulant, should be taken to neutralize and resolve away blood poisons, caused by the virus of scrofula, cancer, canker, malarial or contagious diseases, which maintain and foster diseases, which maintain and foster diseases of the skin and scalp.

SALT RHEUM.

Life a burden from the sufferings caused by this terrible disease.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER—Gentlemen: Please accept my most grateful thanks for the great, very great, comfort I have received from the use of your CUTICURA.

For the past eight or nine years I have been troubled with that dreadful disease, Salt Rheum,

For months I would be helpless,—my very life a burden to me.

I have used everything in the shape of medicine, both external and internal, but with no effect.

My hands were in a terrible condition, the backs of them being all raw, and I thought I would try CUTICURA.

I tried it, and lo! it was as if a miracle had been performed, for I will take my oath that in three applications my hands were as smooth as a new-born babe's.

I presume there are hundreds, if not thousands, who know of my case, among whom there may be some one similarly afflicted, and if so I would earnestly advise him to give CUTICURA a trial.

Yours, very thankfully,
A. D. BAKER, Ticket Agent C. S. R. R.

Tetter or Salt Rheum

On the hands cured. A greatful letter.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER—Gentlemen:—Having been troubled for many years with the Tetter or Salt Rheum, I spent many a hard-earned dollar. I was given a trial of your CUTICURA, and, thank God, my hands are well. I never had anything do me such like that.

You may put this in the paper and welcome, and may it do some other poor sufferer the same good it has done me! I am well known here, having lived here almost fifteen years and kept boarders for a living, and sometimes my heart was sore, thinking I would have to give up altogether with my sore hands, and having a small family to take care of; but oh! thank God, my hands are well, so I again return thanks.

Yours respectfully,
ELIZABETH BUCKLEY.
LITTLETON, N. H., May 30, 1878.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., and for sale by all Druggists. Price of Cuticura, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes $1. Resolvent, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Soap, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes, 25 cents.

How Great Men Die.

Since the death of Speaker Kerr and Senator Morton, of Bright's Disease, it has been noticed and noted that a large number of our public men and leading business men die too early from the same or a similar cause. By using Warner's Safe Cure, their diseases will be cured, and their valuable lives prolonged. The time is coming when, because of this remedy, no one will die of such diseases as Bright's and Daibetes.

Habit is almost as strong as principle, and sometimes when we are beset by a multiplicity of cares, may act in its stead. Be careful then that your habits are of the very best. Moral.—School yourself into the habit of smoking Blackwell's Fragrant Durham Bull Smoking Tobacco.
